

DRAMA UP!

CHILD SAFE POLICY, (July 2024)

To be reviewed: July 2028

INTRODUCTION

DRAMA UP! is committed to promoting and protecting the interests and safety of children. We have zero tolerance for child abuse, racism or discrimination based on difference. Everyone working at DRAMA UP! is responsible for the care and protection of children and reporting information about child abuse.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is

1. To have an organisational culture of child safety and wellbeing.
2. To proactively prevent child abuse and discrimination within DRAMA UP!
3. To ensure that all parties are aware of their responsibilities for identifying possible occasions for child abuse and for establishing procedures for preventing such abuse and/or detecting such abuse when it occurs.
4. To provide guidance to staff/volunteers/contractors as to action that should be taken where they suspect any abuse within or outside of the organisation.
5. To provide a clear statement to staff/volunteers/contractors forbidding any such abuse.
6. To provide a clear statement to staff/volunteers/contractors about upholding cultural safety and take action against racism and discrimination.
7. To provide assurance that any and all suspected abuse will be reported to the relevant authorities as outlined in Victoria's Child Safety Standards.

DEFINITIONS

Child means a person below the age of 18 years unless, under the law applicable to the child, majority is attained earlier.

Child protection means any responsibility, measure or activity undertaken to safeguard children from harm.

Child abuse and harm means all forms of physical abuse, emotional ill-treatment, sexual abuse and exploitation, neglect or negligent treatment, commercial (e.g. for financial gain) or other exploitation of a child and includes any actions that results in actual or potential harm to a child. Harm is often used to describe an event that is seen as possibly less detrimental than 'abuse' but is clearly not in the child's best interest or promoting their safety.

Child sexual assault is any act which exposes a child to, or involves a child in, sexual processes beyond his or her understanding or contrary to accepted community standards. It includes child grooming, which refers to actions deliberately undertaken with the aim of lowering the child's inhibitions in preparation for sexual activity with the child.

Core Staff means someone on payroll (as at July 2024 includes Found / Director & Payroll Staff), as opposed to a Teaching Artist or other regular contractor.

Cultural Safety is an environment that is safe for people: where there is no assault, challenge or denial of their identity, of who they are and what they need. It is about shared respect, shared meaning, shared knowledge and experience, of learning, living and working together with dignity and truly listening.

Reasonable grounds for belief is a belief based on reasonable grounds that child abuse has occurred when all known considerations or facts relevant to the formation of a belief are taken into account and these are objectively assessed. A reasonable belief is formed if a reasonable person believes that:

- (a) The child is in need of protection,
- (b) The child has suffered or is likely to suffer "significant harm as a result of physical injury",
- (c) The parents are unable or unwilling to protect the child.

A 'reasonable belief' or a 'belief on reasonable grounds' is not the same as having proof, but is more than mere rumour or speculation. A 'reasonable belief' is formed if a reasonable person in the same position would have formed the belief on the same grounds. For example, a 'reasonable belief' might be formed if:

- a) A child states that they have been physically or sexually abused;
- b) A child states that they know someone who has been physically or sexually abused (sometimes the child may be talking about themselves);
- c) Someone who knows a child states that the child has been physically or sexually abused;
- d) Professional observations of the child's behaviour or development leads a professional to form a belief that the child has been physically or sexually abused or is likely to be abused; and/or
- e) Signs of abuse lead to a belief that the child has been physically or sexually abused. A comprehensive list of signs of child abuse can be found here:

POLICY

DRAMA UP! is committed at all times to promoting and protecting the best interests of children involved in its programs. All children, regardless of their gender, race, religious beliefs, age, disability, sexual orientation, or family or social background, have equal rights to protection from abuse, harm and discrimination.

The Child Safety Standards recognises the increased vulnerabilities of Aboriginal children, children from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, children living with a disability, children who are LGBTIQ+ and children who are living in care or homeless.

DRAMA UP! acknowledges the extra barriers that are faced by children who may be from these backgrounds. DRAMA UP! is a culturally safe place for all children where cultural identities are acknowledged and respected.

DRAMA UP! recognises the unique identities and experiences of Aboriginal young people and actively creates opportunities for expression of culture, understanding that this supports the wellbeing of the child. DRAMA UP! acknowledges the strength and history of Aboriginal culture verbally within our programs and commits to learning about the Indigenous history of our worksites.

DRAMA UP! has zero tolerance for child abuse of any kind. Everyone (employees, contractors, associates and family members) at DRAMA UP! is responsible for the care and protection of the children within our care and reporting information about suspected child abuse.

DRAMA UP! has a zero tolerance for racism and discrimination based on difference. Everyone (employees, contractors, associates and family members) at St Martins commits to actively preventing racism and discrimination and addressing it should it occur.

Any online activities that occur with young people will maintain DRAMA UP! Child Safe Policy and Code of Conduct.

DRAMA UP! supports and respects all children, staff and volunteers. We actively seek children's views on what we do and act upon any concerns raised.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Director of DRAMA UP! has ultimate responsibility for the detection and prevention of child abuse and is responsible for ensuring that appropriate and effective internal control systems are in place. The Director of DRAMA UP! is also responsible for ensuring that appropriate policies and procedures and a Child Protection Code of Conduct are in place.

The Director of DRAMA UP! is responsible for:

- Dealing with and investigating reports of child abuse;
- Ensuring that all staff, contractors, and volunteers are aware of relevant laws, organisational policies and procedures, and the organisation's Code of Conduct;
- Ensuring that all adults within the DRAMA UP! community are aware of their obligation to report suspected sexual abuse of a child in accordance with these policies and procedures;
- Ensuring that all staff, contractors and volunteers are aware of their obligation to observe the Code of Conduct (particularly as it relates to child safety);
- Providing support for staff, contractors and volunteers in undertaking their child protection responsibilities.
- Provide families and young people with accessible material that communicates our child safe policy and organisational procedures so that both adults and young people understand their rights.
- Providing staff and contractors with adequate training to ensure child safety whilst online.

All Staff (administrative, production and Teaching Artists) must ensure that they:

- Promote child safety at all times;
- Assess the risk of child abuse within their area of control and eradicate / minimise any risk to the extent possible; and
- Report inappropriate behaviour or suspected abusive activities.

- Take the reporting of child abuse or discrimination seriously and act accordingly

Everyone shares in the responsibility for the prevention and detection of child abuse and the upholding of child safety standards and must:

- Familiarise themselves with the relevant laws, the Code of Conduct, and DRAMA UP!'s policy and procedures in relation to child protection, and comply with all requirements;
- Report any reasonable belief that a child's safety is at risk to the relevant authorities (such as the police and / or the state-based child protection service).

Under Victorian law, any person who fails to protect a child from abuse is liable for prosecution.

- Report any suspicion that a child's safety may be at risk to their supervisor (or, if their supervisor is involved in the suspicion, to a responsible person in the organisation); and
- Provide an environment that is supportive of all children's emotional, physical and cultural safety.

PROCEDURES

Employment of New Personnel

DRAMA UP! undertakes a comprehensive recruitment and screening process for all workers and volunteers which aims to:

- Promote and protect the safety of all children under the care of the organisation;
- Identify the safest and most suitable people who share DRAMA UP!'s values and commitment to protect children; and
- Prevent a person from working at DRAMA UP! if they pose a risk to children.

DRAMA UP! requires all employees and contractors to undertake a Victorian Working With Children's check before they commence working at DRAMA UP! and during their time with DRAMA UP! at regular intervals. A copy of the Working With Children card is kept on file. DRAMA UP! will undertake thorough reference checks as per the approved internal procedure. Once engaged, all staff members, volunteers and contractors must undergo an orientation and updating process in which they are trained to understand and implement the DRAMA UP! Child Safe Policy.

All DRAMA UP! staff should:

- Be aware of the warning signs and be open to noticing them.
- Understand the organisational protocols and procedures, know them and use them.
- Provide mutual support between staff members. Work to create a safe environment for all children and young people.

RISK MANAGEMENT

DRAMA UP! will ensure that child safety is a part of its overall risk management approach. The Director of DRAMA UP! is committed to identifying and managing risks at DRAMA UP!.

The Director of DRAMA UP! members will receive regular training in relation to child safety.

High Risk situations such as projects with sensitive subject matter or online activities will be individually assessed by the DRAMA UP! Director ahead of being undertaken. Protocols will be documented and agreed with participants and their families ahead of time.

REPORTING

Any staff member, volunteer or contractor who has strong grounds to suspect abusive activity must immediately notify the appropriate child protection service or the police. They should also advise their supervisor about their concern. In situations where the supervisor is suspected of involvement in the activity, or if the person having the suspicion does not believe that the matter is being appropriately addressed or dealt with, the matter should be reported to the next highest level of supervision.

DRAMA UP! staff must report complaints of suspected abusive behaviour or misconduct to the police.

Parents and families will be encouraged to contact DRAMA UP! Director immediately should they believe any inappropriate activities have taken place or they suspect abuse. Information will be provided on the DRAMA UP! website with guidance to this effect.

Young people and families will be made aware of the guidelines so that young people know who to report to or raise concerns.

The following Investigating and Responding guidelines will be followed regardless of who reports the allegations.

INVESTIGATING

If the appropriate child protection service or the police decide to conduct an investigation of this report, all employees, contractors or volunteers must co-operate fully with the investigation.

Whether or not the authorities decide to conduct an investigation, the DRAMA UP! Director will consult with the authorities to determine whether an internal investigation is appropriate. If it is decided that such an investigation will not conflict with any proceeding of the authorities, the Executive Team may decide to conduct such an investigation. All employees, contractors and volunteers must co-operate fully with the investigation.

Any such investigation will be conducted in a fair and reasonable manner. DRAMA UP! will make every effort to keep any such investigation confidential; however, from time-to-time other members of staff may need to be consulted in conjunction with the investigation.

After an initial review and a determination that the suspected abuse warrants additional investigation, the DRAMA UP! Director shall coordinate the investigation with the appropriate investigators and / or law enforcement officials. Internal or external legal representatives will be involved in the process, as deemed appropriate.

RESPONDING

If it is alleged that a member of staff, contractor or a volunteer may have committed an offence or have breached the organisation's policies or its Code of Conduct the person concerned may be stood down (with pay, where applicable) while an investigation is conducted.

If the investigation concludes that on the balance of probabilities an offence (or a breach of the organisation's policies or Code of Conduct) has occurred then disciplinary action may follow, including dismissal or cessation of involvement with the organisation. The findings of the investigation will also be reported to any external body as required.

PRIVACY

The privacy of the individuals involved in any investigation or incident will be respected unless there is a risk to someone's safety.

Everyone is entitled to know how their personal information is recorded, what will be done with it, and who will be able to access it. Please see DRAMA UP!'s privacy policy for more details.

REVIEWING

Every two years, and following every reportable incident, a review shall be conducted to assess whether the organisation's child protection policies or procedures require modification to better protect the children under the organisation's care.

STAFF CODE OF CONDUCT

As an employee/volunteer/contractor at DRAMA UP!, I undertake to:

- Conduct myself in a manner consistent with my position as a positive role model for children/young people and as a representative of St Martins.
- Follow organisational policy and guidelines relating to the safety of children as outlined in the the Child Safe Policy.
- Recognise that children and young people are vulnerable and use my influence and power in their best interests.
- Engage only in practices that are respectful of children/young people and in no way degrade, endanger, exploit, intimidate or harm them physically or psychologically.
- Ensure that my practices reflect consideration of the child's/young person's perspective and be sensitive to their reactions to my tone of voice and manner.
- Respect the cultural identity of all young people by making space for cultural and/or religious activities and beliefs. Address any racism should it occur. Inform participants of the general nature of project/workshop content. If content is potentially controversial, I will inform senior staff and arrange a parental consent form (for those under 18 years) to be signed before the commencement of the project or workshop.
- Raise all concerns, issues and problems with the DRAMA UP! Director as soon as possible. If a concern includes this person, I will contact a higher authority – police.
- Arrive punctually at the time my supervision is to commence.
- Take prompt action to put an end to any dangerous or potentially dangerous behaviour.

- Consider the maturity and propensities of the young people involved and the nature of the environment, in assessing whether it is reasonable to leave a group (or small groups) unsupervised, and for how long.
- Ensure that I am acquainted with Emergency Evacuation Procedures as outlined in the Tutor's kit.
- When working with participants, carry their Emergency Contact details, and details of other DRAMA UP! staff with me at all times. (Emergency Contact details are on DRAMA UP! attendance rolls for easy access.)
- Avoid placing myself in situations where I am alone with a child/young person, unless the child/young person is otherwise endangered.
- In the case of non-collection of a child/young person after the conclusion of a scheduled activity, make all reasonable attempts to contact people on a member's Emergency Contact list. If attempts are unsuccessful, contact the DRAMA UP! Director on speaker phone to contact police station within half an hour after the conclusion of the session, (and remain in a public accessible position, eg.: studio door is open or stand on the street while still be able to observe child/young person in care).
- Ensure that any allegation or suspicion of abuse is taken seriously, recorded, reported as soon as possible to the police & DRAMA UP! Director, and policy or child protection unit as appropriate, and acted upon.

I undertake NOT to engage in any of the following

UNACCEPTABLE BEHAVIOURS:

- Ignore or disregard any concerns, suspicions or disclosures of child abuse or harm
- Develop a relationship with any student that could be seen as favouritism or amount to 'grooming' behaviour (for example, by offering gifts)
- Rough physical games or "horseplay".
- Holding, kissing, cuddling or touching children or young people in an inappropriate and/or culturally insensitive way.
- Making sexually suggestive comments to a child, even as a joke.
- Make culturally insensitive comments to a child, even as a joke.
- Expose children to pornographic material.
- Doing things of a personal nature that a child can do for him/herself, such as changing clothes.
- Taking a child to my home or encouraging meetings outside DRAMA UP! programmed activities.
- Display behaviours or engage with students in ways that are not justified by the educational or professional context
- Ignore an adult's overly familiar or inappropriate behaviour towards a student
- Discuss intimate topics or use sexualised language, except when needed to deliver the school curriculum or professional guidance
- Treat a child or student unfavourably because of their disability, age, gender, race, culture, vulnerability, sexuality or ethnicity

- Communicate directly with a student through personal or private contact channels (including by social media, email, instant messaging, texting etc).
- Photograph or video a child or student in a workshop environment except if parental permission has been sought or where required for duty of care purposes
- Consume alcohol or take illicit drugs in the workshop environment or DRAMA UP! events where students are present

CONTENT

Workshop leaders and project directors will inform participants of the general nature of project / workshop content. When possible, scripts will be available for perusal by participants (and parents/guardians) prior to commencement of rehearsals. If content is potentially controversial, a parental consent form (for those under 17 years) will need to be signed at the commencement of the project/workshop.

Any performance or outing where DRAMA UP! will be hosting young people under the age of 18 to attend will follow these five steps:

1. A core staff member sites the work or reads the complete script
2. A core staff member liaises with the venue/producer to gain age-appropriate recommendations
3. A permission form outlines any sensitive material and warnings to parents at least one week before the outing.
4. Where possible, artists talks or other scaffolding events will be arranged to debrief material 'in the moment'
5. A debrief of all sensitive performance/outcomes will take place in the next scheduled workshop immediately following.
